We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Journal of Social Studies Education Research, "E-assessment Indonesian Literacy for Character Education in Pandemic Era".

Our decision is: "Resubmit for review"

This paper is confused. In our thorough check, this paper is improper on the following important sections

- research questions are not coherent with design, data analysis, results and discussion. Each contradicted.
- this study is essentially "single pre-test posttest" design, but the author circulatory explains "mixed-methods" and included descriptive statistics, t-test, qualitative of Cresswell model, survey, showing that the authors did not understand their research.
- this paper can be considered for further process provided the design is corrected properly, and all aspects that make the research design correct and accurate have been improved perfectly.
- Pleas note also, that the scope, the depth and the breadth of this research is too small. This research is too narrow for the international readers.

Please see the further comments of the reviewers given below and revise your manuscript accordingly. Please also address each of the reviewer's comments point by point in a "Response to Reviewers" letter upon resubmission. We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Journal of Social Studies Education Research, "E-assessment Indonesian Literacy for Character Education in Pandemic Era".

Our decision is: "Resubmit for review"

Although 4 rounds of review opportunity with detailed feedback is provided, the required improvement is not properly completed. This paper has many contradicted logic, in coherent flow and improper description on methods section, results and discussion. Wrong description on methodology section also appears. The academic English is improper. Revision to present the properness and accuracy is strongly required. Proofreading by native English language specialist is strongly needed.

Please see the comments of the reviewers given in the attached file and revise your manuscript accordingly. Please also address each of the reviewer's comments point by point in a "Response to Reviewers" letter upon resubmission. Proofreading whole paper and remove spelling and grammar mistakes is necessary. Make sure to Proof-edited by a native English language specialist.
